

NORTHAMPTON NEPTUNES PRESS RELEASE

16th November 2009

Northampton Neptunes 110
GAC 75

The Northampton Neptunes kept their 100 percent record despite not having the services of Player coach Mark Spatcher, who was missing due to illness.

The Neptunes made a poor start to the game as the GAC team took an early lead, the Neptunes were without Spatcher lack leadership on the floor as rushed shots and poor defence saw the them trail by 10 points at the quarter.

In the second quarter Neptunes began to find a bit of shape to the way they were trying to play. Joe Mclean began to give vital support to Tyler Kathan on the scoring front as he began to get to the basket for several scores as the Neptunes managed to regain the lead at the half.

In the second half the Neptunes began to pull away as the Warwickshire team struggle to contain Kathan. The Neptunes eventually ran out easy winners as they made it 5 from 5 wins.

Top scorers for the Neptunes were American Tyler Kathan, Joe Mclean and Shafiq Omar who all hit double digits score for the home side. Jonny Yates also made his debut with a solid performance.

The Neptunes face Warwick Uni next Tuesday before their big show down with the Premier Warriors a week on Sunday at lings Forum LC.
